WASHINGTON, MAY 10 (AP)

President Roosevelt asked Congress today for new appropriations for the Army totaling $15,676,652,700, which would bring the total contemplated expenditures for military purposes up to $49,000,000,000 for the next fiscal year.

"The estimates," a White House statement said, "contemplate the maintenance and operation of an army of 7,700,000 officers, men and women on the offensive in a global war through June 30, 1945."

BULLETIN

Washington, May 10 (AP) — The besieged Germans cried out today that Allied planes were attacking their "European fortress" from Britain and Italy after the RAF had spread fresh ruin in Berlin and exploded up to 2,800 tons of bombs in the Paris suburbs and on other French targets.

Sevastopol and the last bit of the Crimea had fallen to the Russians, releasing two Red Armies for summer campaigns and depriving the Germans of thousands of their troops killed or captured in a whirlwind drive of 32 days.

The Germans in Italy continued their strange retreat along the inland mountain spine to within 11 miles of Sulmona, an important rail base. Eighth Army troops picked up Palena, Fallascoso and San Angelo and thrust a deep wedge into enemy positions.

Crush Holland

On this fateful morning four years ago, the German armies struck toward the west in power drives that toppled Holland in four days, Belgium in 18 and France in five weeks and left the virtually weaponless British army—dramatically saved from Dunkerque—with only a thin shield of RAF planes to save the British Isles, and perhaps the world, from German hegemony. The boot was on the other foot today and the ace of Nazi military commentators, Lt. Gen. Kurt Dietmar, said dolefully:

"There is no doubt that Germany now lives in a state of siege. It is undeniable that there is great tension."

He referred to General Eisenhower's massed armies in Britain—now the greatest invasion base in history—waiting to spring at the throat of the German army, while the Russians pressed inexorably from the east.

Pound Berlin

Mosquitoes dropped a profusion of 4,000-pound blockbusters into the ruins of Berlin last night. The main target of 750 heavy bombers was Gennevillers on the northwest fringe of Paris, where the Germans had planted important military and industrial establishments. Some RAF planes bombed a ballbearing plant at Annecy near the Italian border; others hit the channel invasion coast; still others bombed German waters.

Medium bombers from Italy struck the German-held ports of Genoa and Livorno and communications north of Rome. Seven British bombers were lost; eight of the Italian-based force failed to return.

Flights of 4,000 or more planes yesterday deposited 6,000 tons of bombs on railroads and airports in three countries facing Eisenhower at a cost of six bombers and seven fighters.

As the German radio said planes were striking western Germany and into the Danube-Alps region of Austria or Hungary, the Hungarian newspaper Uizh Magyarai crudely warned that a thousand Jews would be massacred each time Budapest was bombed.

U. S. INJUNCTION AGAINST WARD STORE DROPPED

Chicago, May 10 (AP)—Federal Judge William H. Holly today dropped injunction litigation stemming from government seizure of Montgomery Ward and company Chicago properties without ruling on legality of the federal action in taking possession.

The court told company and government counsel that he "considered the case dismissed" but would rule Friday on whether it should be recorded as dismissed with or without prejudice.

Judge Holly said he would not rule on legality of the seizure because "events have transpired which apparently have taken the case out of my hands."

Restore Property

The company properties are back in the hands of its management, Judge Holly said, and it is a well established fact that federal courts are not required to rule "on a moot question."

He said there was now "nothing before me," events having "transpired" while he was considering the petition of the government for a temporary injunction to prohibit Ward officials from interfering with government operation of the plant.

The Chicago plant was in government possession from April 28 until yesterday when Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones turned it back to the company.

STATE GROUPS HERE FOR MAY 30TH PROGRAM

Every phase of the Memorial Day program in the Gettysburg National Cemetery is being worked out to the minutest detail by the local and state committees, under the direction of Governor Edwar Martin.

Special sub-committees from the state committee have visited Gettysburg to complete all the arrangements for the arrival of 41 governors who will attend the exercise. Governor Leveitt Saltonstall, of Massachusetts, will speak for the North and Governor E. Melville Broughton, of North Carolina, will speak for the South.

On Monday Morris Schwartz, chief of the correspondents' bureau in the state capitol and in charge of the public relations phase of the program, and Frank Hoffman, state superintendent of public grounds and buildings, were in Gettysburg conferring with the local committee.

Expect 100 Reporters

Arrangements were completed for the construction of a press stand in front of the cemetery rostrum to accommodate 100 correspondents, and the enlargement of the photographers' stand. They also arranged with The Gettysburg Times for other accommodations for the large press corps expected to cover the program here. They also conferred with Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the Battlefield, and William L. Meals, Esq., secretary of the local Memorial Day committee.

On Tuesday Otto Messner, deputy secretary of revenue, and John F. Royer, secretary of personnel in the Governor's office, conferred with members of the local committee, Burgess Fred G. Pfeiffer and LeRoy Winebrenner, marshal of the parade, on arrangements for decorating the town streets and the cemetery rostrum.

The Governor's office is teeming with enthusiasm over the Gettysburg program, the chief executive of the state declaring that the exercise here on May 30 will be "second only to the memorable occasion when Abraham Lincoln dedicated the cemetery."

Red Cross Handled 177 Cases In April

Home service activities of the Adams County Red Cross fell off slightly during April with 177 cases, 15 less than the all time high in March.

Of the cases 12 involved ex-servicemen, 143 service men and 21 civilians. During the investigations 129 office visits, 16 home visits and five reference visits were made by the Red Cross workers.

CORRECTION
In the tabulation of Gettysburg school teachers' salaries for the 1944-1945 term, the figure for Lloyd R. Hartman, Meade school principal was given incorrectly. The figure should have been $1,960.

Doctor Dunbar received an M.S. degree in chemistry here in 1904 and the honorary degree of doctor of science here several years ago. Two of Doctor Dunbar's daughters are married to Army officers and the third is training to become a WASP at Avenger Field, Texas.

In announcing the appointment Federal Security Administrator Paul V. McNutt issued a statement declaring Doctor Dunbar's selection "assured a continuation of the high standards maintained by the Food and Drug Administration in the past since he had an important part in developing policies in the administration of food and drug laws for the past 20 years."

Immediately after receiving his Ph.D. from Johns Hopkins university, Doctor Dunbar was appointed one of the original group selected for the enforcement of the Food and Drug Act of 1906. A food chemist, his work started in the laboratory. In 1914, he became staff assistant to Mr. Campbell, who then was chief of the eastern district of the Bureau of Chemistry, then a part of the Agriculture Department.

Doctor Dunbar was appointed assistant chief of the Bureau of Chemistry in 1925, and of the Food and Drug Administration in 1927, when it was organized under that name. He continued in that capacity when the Food and Drug Administration was transferred to the Federal Security Agency in 1940. In 1942 he was made associate commissioner of food and drugs.

U. S. INJUNCTION AGAINST WARD STORE DROPPED

Chicago, May 10 (AP)—Federal Judge William H. Holly today dropped injunction litigation stemming from government seizure of Montgomery Ward and company Chicago properties without ruling on legality of the federal action in taking possession.

The court told company and government counsel that he "considered the case dismissed" but would rule Friday on whether it should be recorded as dismissed with or without prejudice.

Judge Holly said he would not rule on legality of the seizure because "events have transpired which apparently have taken the case out of my hands."

Restore Property

The company properties are back in the hands of its management, Judge Holly said, and it is a well established fact that federal courts are not required to rule "on a moot question."

He said there was now "nothing before me," events having "transpired" while he was considering the petition of the government for a temporary injunction to prohibit Ward officials from interfering with government operation of the plant.

The Chicago plant was in government possession from April 28 until yesterday when Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones turned it back to the company.

Chicago, May 10 (AP)—Immediate extension and enforcement of a CIO union contract with Montgomery Ward and company, released from government control last night, was asked by the union today in a telegram to the War Labor Board.

The appeal to the WLB to extend the expired contract pending negotiation of a new agreement followed yesterday's collective bargaining election won by the union, whose controversy with the company led to federal seizure of the plant last April 26.

The union's action came as Sewell L. Avery resumed control of the huge mail order house, 13 days after two soldiers carried him from his office when he refused to comply with a WLB directive and a Presidential order to extend the contract.

Avery Back In Office

Avery, barred by federal officials from entering his office, returned today following a ruling last night by Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones ending federal possession of the Chicago properties.

WAR PRISONERS MAY WORK HERE

Thirty-five Adams and York county canners met Tuesday in Hanover with Truman B. Thompson, state rural industries supervisor, and other officials in an attempt to complete plans for securing workers from outside the county to help in the canneries during the forthcoming harvest season.

Army officials also attended the session at which the possibility of securing war prisoner help in the two counties was discussed. Some were reported as willing to use such help, although there was no official indication that war prisoners will be assigned to this section. A number of such prisoners are expected to be available for food production in the eastern states. However, it was not immediately known just where the prisoners will be assigned.

Among those attending the meeting from Adams county were M. E. Knouse of the Knouse Corporation, Peach Glen; Howard Musselman of the Orntanna Canning Company; Glenn Taylor of the Adams Apple Products, Aspers; John Hauser of C. H. Musselman Company; Edward G. Gentz of the New Oxford Canning Company; John Burgoon of the B. F. Schriver Company, Littlestown, and Melvin Wehler of the Littlestown Canning Company. Nearly all of the York county canning companies were also represented as were officials of the USES from York and Adams county.

Germans Jittery; More Hard Raids; Sevastopol Falls

By RICHARD McMURRAY (Associated Press War Editor)

The besieged Germans cried out today that Allied planes were attacking their "European fortress" from Britain and Italy after the RAF had spread fresh ruin in Berlin and exploded up to 2,800 tons of bombs in the Paris suburbs and on other French targets.

Sevastopol and the last bit of the Crimea had fallen to the Russians, releasing two Red Armies for summer campaigns and depriving the Germans of perhaps 100,000 of their troops killed or captured in a whirlwind drive of 32 days.

The Germans in Italy continued their strange retreat along the inland mountain spine to within 11 miles of Sulmona, an important rail base. Eighth Army troops picked up Palena, Fallascosa and San Angelo and thrust a deep wedge into enemy positions.

Crush Holland

On this fateful morning four years ago, the German armies struck toward the west in power drives that toppled Holland in four days, Belgium in 18 and France in five weeks and left the virtually weaponless British army—dramatically saved from Dunkerque—with only a thin shield of RAF planes to save the British Isles, and perhaps the world, from German hegemony. The boot was on the other foot today and the ace of Nazi military commentators, Lt. Gen. Kurt Dietmar, said dolefully:

"There is no doubt that Germany now lives in a state of siege. It is undeniable that there is great tension."

He referred to General Eisenhower's massed armies in Britain—now the greatest invasion base in history—waiting to spring at the throat of the German army, while the Russians pressed inexorably from the east.

Pound Berlin

Mosquitoes dropped a profusion of 4,000-pound blockbusters into the ruins of Berlin last night. The main target of 750 heavy bombers was Gennevillers on the northwest fringe of Paris, where the Germans had planted important military and industrial establishments. Some RAF planes bombed a ballbearing plant at Ancey near the Italian border; others hit the channel invasion coast; still others mined German waters.

Medium bombers from Italy struck the German-held ports of Genoa and Livorno and communications north of Rome. Seven British bombers were lost; eight of the Italian-based force failed to return.

Flights of 4,000 or more planes yesterday deposited 6,000 tons of bombs on railroads and airports in three countries facing Eisenhower at a cost of six bombers and seven fighters.

As the German radio said planes were striking western Germany and into the Danube-Alps region of Austria or Hungary, the Hunarian newspaper Uizh Magyarzai cruelly warned that a thousand Jews would be massacred each time Budapest was bombed.

AAA ROAD CARS HERE TUESDAY

The three American Automobile Association road cars traveling throughout the country to demonstrate synthetic tires and to influence the public to conserve cars and tires came to Gettysburg Tuesday and made an official report at the local motor club offices.

Ted Bunting, driver of the first car, arrived about three o'clock en route to Washington. The other two cars followed later.

Mr. Bunting drove 19,000 miles since February 1st, 5,000 miles of which were traveled on the Indianapolis speedway. He traveled across the country and had only three punctures. One of the four tires on his car was a recap and the other three were synthetic. He travels at a regulation 35-mile per hour speed and is checked throughout the day by a Tachograph which records the speed, the time of day and travel and the stop-overs.

On Monday the three cars will leave Washington to tour the New England states, the middle west and deep central south.

Included in the party that visited Gettysburg Tuesday were W. L. Robinson, Walter Hubbard, T. E. Allen and Russell A. Singer, general manager of the American Automobile Association.

By The Associated Press

London, May 10—The Germans were reported striving hastily to tighten up their shaken western defenses on this fourth anniversary of the Nazi drive through the low countries as the gigantic British-American air campaign developed new aspects pointing toward a climax in preparation for invasion D-Day.

Thus the war in the west had swung in a full cycle, reversing the position of May 10, 1940, when the Germans, supreme in the air and on the ground, sent their legions crashing into Belgium and the Netherlands in the all-conquering Blitzkrieg which led quickly to Dunkerque and the collapse of France.

With conclusive defeat in the air staring him in the face, Adolf Hitler has designated 29-year-old Maj. Gen. Oberst Peiz to command German air forces in the west and ordered him to assemble a force to combat the impending Allied invasion, said reliable advices from underground Europe.

SAYS CHINA MAY BE KNOCKED OUT BEFORE GERMANY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst
The greatest danger the Allies face in their war against Japan is that gallant but hard-hit China may be knocked out (for all practical purposes) before we can finish off Hitler and turn our full strength against the marauders of the orient.

Actually China's weakness isn't new but is a long standing malady which just recently has become acute again. This column has reported numerous times that our ally was in dire straits.

The fresh difficulty is the Japanese offensive in Honan Province. This is surging westward along the great Yellow River (China's sorrow) and southward astride the Peiping-Hankow-Canton railway.

It represents a real threat to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's remaining war resources, including even his temporary, bomb-torn capital of Chungking.

Chiang's chief defense for years has been his ability to swap land-space for time, since he has lacked equipment for his armies. The enemy has absorbed the great industrial areas, the ports and much of the agricultural country — but the vast Hinterland has been just too big for him to overrun.

The generalissimo's present hold-mans, however, represent close to his last-usable territory. He could, to be sure, retreat still further into the "roof of the world"—but it would render him militarily impotent.

Such a catastrophe wouldn't mean that the United Nations had lost the war against Japan. But it would mean that the difficulties had been multiplied and that the conflict likely would be greatly protracted.

The Japanese offensive in Honan may have as one of its chief objectives the control of the entire Peiping-Canton railroad. This would give them an invaluable interior line of communication in China and would thus ease their grave shipping situation.

Japan's all-important sea communications, upon which the little island kingdom depends to hold together her ill-got empire and continue to wage war, already are badly shot to pieces. Admiral Ernest J. King, commander in chief of the United States fleet, tells us Japan's Navy already is so damaged that she can't hope to make up losses. He also says we've reduced Nippon's merchant fleet to not more than two-thirds of what it was when we were attacked, and he predicts that "she cannot stand such a rate of loss for any length of time and keep her empire together."

To add spice to this dish, the London Evening Standard reports that British submarines are mustering in the far east for a smashing blow at the vulnerable sea communications of the Japanese armies. The newspaper didn't specify the theater involved, but presumably it's Chinese and Indonesian waters in Admiral Lord Mountbatten's command.

No wonder the Japanese want to bolster their land communications. Among other possible objectives of the invaders' drive may be the capture of Chungking. Heavy fighting is proceeding in the vicinity of Loyang, and this ancient city is guardian of a route to the capital. A continuation of their westward thrust also would gain the Japanese a rich grain area which is ready for the harvest, and would cut off Marshal Chiang's northern armies from those in the south.

The Loyang battle is reported to be ebbing and flowing fiercely. Our Major General Claire L. Chenault's Chinese-American air fleet is giving the hard-pressed Chinese direct support in this crucial engagement.

Lausche Wins In Ohio Contest

Columbus, O., May 10 (AP)—Mayor Frank J. Lausche of Cleveland, tousel-haired son of Slovenian immigrants, captured the Democratic nomination for Governor of Ohio in yesterday's primary, mounting returns showed today, and Mayor James Garfield Stewart of Cincinnati held a lead for the Republican nomination.

Lausche, backed by the CIO's political action committee and endorsed by Democratic State Chairman Darrell S. Jones, took the lead from the start and built up a margin that two of his five opponents conceded early today.

Voters gave William G. Pickrel of Dayton nearly a two-to-one lead for the Democratic U. S. Senatorial nomination. Senator Robert A. Taft, Cincinnati Republican, won re-nomination without opposition.

There was no contest for convention delegates. Gov. John W. Bricker was given the state's 50 Republican votes, while the Democrats 52 went to President Roosevelt—if he wants them. All incumbent congressmen were renominated.

NIMITZ GIVEN SECOND DSM AS ADMIRAL'S MEET

(By The Associated Press)

The meeting in San Francisco of the Navy's triple-threat to Japan—Admirals Halsey, Nimitz and King—is being watched by military observers as a point when the European invasion begins. Tokyo may be too busy to listen to the radio.

The Navy said little about the meeting except that it had been held and that Admiral Nimitz, Pacific fleet chief had received a new decoration—his second Distinguished Service Medal—for "his sound judgment and masterful conduct" of operations in 1941 and 1942 following the enemy assault on Pearl Harbor. It was a signal honor. Only other ranking officers to be similarly decorated are Admiral Halsey, the South Pacific commander, and General Thomas Holcomb of the Marine Corps, retired. The Navy said the three admirals met last week-end.

Obvious Strategy

The west coast meeting is believed to have been singularly significant because the United States fleet commander-in-chief, Admiral King, is known to feel that the Pacific fight must be carried through without cessation no matter what happens to Hitler's empire before Tokyo falls.

And the forces under Nimitz and Halsey have no alternative from the obvious line of strategy. They must forge new links in the line to Japan, either by plastering Truk, in the Caroline island group, or by skirting Truk and establishing bases in the Marianna island chain running north from the Carolines.

Heavy Jap Losses

From Admiral Nimitz' Pearl Harbor headquarters has come news of new Allied blows on Ponape, 440 miles east of Truk, one of the Japanese bases guarding the supply lines to the Japanese stronghold.

Primary aim of attacks on Truk, the Marianas and other islands in that area is the opening of a supply route for General MacArthur's amphibious forces already in possession of a new jumping off point at Hollandia, New Guinea.

The most recent communique from MacArthur headquarters carried a new summary of the Japanese casualties in the successful Hollandia invasion, listing 871 dead and 183 prisoners, not including previous estimates of 800 Japanese dead, wounded and prisoners at Aitape, 150 miles southeast of Hollandia.

Flood Control Bill Is Sent To Senate

Washington, May 10 (AP)—Legislation authorizing postwar construction of flood control works including the Susquehanna river basin project in Pennsylvania was passed by the House yesterday and sent to the senate.

By voice vote, the House agreed to appropriate a total of $810,000 for the work in several states. In Pennsylvania, $22,227,000 would be used for local protection at Harrisburg; $1,392,000 flood defenses at Tyrone on the Little Juniata river; $4,755,000 South Plymouth and Geneganslet reservoirs on tributaries of Chenango river and $2,000,000 for the Raystown reservoir.

Rep. Leon H. Gavin of Oil City, who introduced the amendment to have the upper Clarion river project in Elk county made part of the legislation, said a survey of the vicinity has just been completed by war department engineers and that they favor the proposal.

Gavin said he did not have exact estimates, but costs would amount to "several million."

Call For General Election In Eire

London, May 10 (AP)—Rebuffed by one vote on a government-sponsored transport issue, Prime Minister Eamon De Valera of Eire put his administration at stake today by calling for a general election, the second for the non-warring Irish within a year.

There was some feeling in London that the crisis was synthetic—manufactured by De Valera in the hope of strengthening his own party's membership in the Dail and proving his country's solidity behind his neutrality policy.

The crisis developed from a 64-63 setback for the Prime Minister yesterday on a bill to create a government-owned rail and truck transport system. Illness prevented attendance of De Valera's Finance Minister, P. T. O'Kelly, whose vote would have tied the count and permitted the speaker of the Dail to cast the deciding vote for the government.

MAROONS MEET HANOVER TRACK TEAM THURSDAY

Coach Mel Dry's unbeaten Gettysburg high school track team faces one of its toughest assignments of the season Thursday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock when Hanover high will be met on the local athletic field in a dual meet.

While the Maroons nosed out Hanover to capture the Southern Pennsylvania conference title in the meet last Friday evening at Waynesboro, they will probably find the going tougher Thursday. Hanover was deprived of many important points last week through places gained by entries from Chambersburg, Carlisle and Waynesboro.

Winners of 11 first places in the conference clash will be meeting. The Nighthawks grabbed six first places to five for Gettysburg at Waynesboro.

McLaughlin Out
Top performer for Hanover will probably be Shue, sprinter. Shue won the 100 and 440-yard dash at Waynesboro to be the only double winner.

The Maroons will be handicapped through the absence of Pat McLaughlin, hurdler, who injured his ankle in a fall last week during the conference meet. William Sperry will be the lone Gettysburg entry in the hurdles.

Following Thursday's meet the Maroons will engage Harrisburg Catholic high here May 18 and two days later will conclude their season by facing Mercersburg academy at Mercersburg.

NO ANTLELLESS DEER SEASON IN PA. DURING WAR

Harrisburg, May 10 (AP)—Declaration of an antlerless deer season in Pennsylvania has been deferred by the State Game Commission in the hope that returning service men will have an opportunity to participate in it.

The commission, in an announcement issued by Ross L. Leffler, commission president, explained the action was taken "even though a season was recommended for a few counties this year" and there are indications a statewide antlerless deer season will be necessary next year.

Killing of does and young bucks without horns was legal for three days last December in Tioga, McKean, Lycoming, Sullivan, Warren, Cameron and Potter counties, a total of 50,000 special $1 permits being issued to sportsmen to hunt in those counties. A similar season declared for Clinton county was abrogated by the commission when a majority of licensed hunters protested against it.

List Season Dates
Game season dates announced officially by the commission are:

Small game, Nov. 1-30; bear, Nov. 27-30; deer, Dec. 1-16; Snowshoe hares, Nov. 15-22; and raccoons, Oct. 23-Feb. 1, 1945.

Trapping seasons for fur-bearing animals: minks, skunks and otters, Nov. 1-Feb. 1, 1945; muskrats, Dec. 1-Feb. 1, 1945; beavers, Feb. 15-Mar. 1, 1945; and opossums, unprotected until Sept. 30, 1945. The trapping season for raccoons, Nov. 1-Feb. 1, 1945.

Daily or seasonal bag limits unchanged except for raccoons, for which the daily bag was increased from three to four and the seasonal limit from three to four and the seasonal limit from three to four.

The commission also announced the release of 2,000 South Dakota pheasants in northern tier counties.

Confession Clears Trunk Mystery Case

Crystal City, Texas, May 10 (AP)—A confession that he killed his wife, Mrs. Louise Villegos, by hitting her in the back of the head with his fist and shipped her body in a trunk from Chicago to Los Angeles has been signed here by Soylia Villegos, 26, Deputy Sheriff Garrett Barnes said last night.

A trunk containing a woman's body was opened in Los Angeles last Friday. A way bill showed the trunk was sent from Chicago April 30 by a "John Lopez" to the same name there. No Los Angeles address was included. The way bill was marked "will call."

The body was packed in salt and various articles of clothing thrown over it. Trickling of melting salt caused a Railway Express clerk to notify authorities, who opened the trunk.

Deputy Barnes said Villegos was picked up in Crystal City on the advice of Chicago police.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, May 10 (AP)—The baseball committee that looked into the high school situation learned that approximately 96 per cent of the high schools support basketball teams, but only 32 per cent participate in baseball. . . . and since the war began baseball interest decreased 14 per cent while basketball showed an increase. . . . On the other side of the picture reports from such widely-spaced spots as New Orleans, La., and Bergen County, N. J., indicate that "education" or "publicity" (choose your own word) will lead the players and fans to show fresh interest in school baseball. . . . Crowds of 15,000 aren't unusual at championship ball games in New Orleans, where interest in professional sport has declined in the past 15 years. . . . Bergen County supports 27 school ball teams, drawing players from 70 towns and small cities. . . . One thing that stands out in both places is that they have coaches who know their jobs and who work hard at coaching.

INCONSISTENT

There was considerable stir among the agriculturists around Rumson, N. J., the other day when the news came out of the birth of twin calves in Mike Jacobs' barn. . . . It was the first such event in the vicinity in 35 years, but Uncle Mike wasn't unduly elated. "They were both bulls," he complained. "I'd have given $50 if they had been heifers."

A ROOKIE A DAY

Roland (Frenchy) Gladu, Braves' third baseman: The only player who came straight from England to land a big league job. . . . Frenchy broke in with Del Bissontette's Quebec team in the Provincial league in 1939, shifted over to Quebec's Canadian-American league in '41 and hit well over .300 during those three years. . . . Then he took a road trip to England with the Canadian Army and was discharged just in time to report for spring training. . . . In the season opener he speared a Giant liner then smacked a triple for his first hit. . . . The Braves lost but the fans gave Frenchy the Gladu hand.

SPORTPOURRI

During the spring training season, the Cardinals weren't allowed to cross the Eastman-Landis line for an exhibition with Johnny Beazley's Fourth Ferrying Group team. But Monday it was okay for them to visit Memphis for the same purpose. . . . The Aaron Perry-Bummy Davis fight June 9 will be the first eight-round main bout in Madison Square Garden. Reason is that 18-year-old Aaron isn't old enough for longer bouts in New York. . . . The football Dodgers officially have become the Brooklyn "Tigers," which at least saves one word in headlines.

BROWNS, PHILS FACING TOUGH TESTS ON ROAD

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Luke Sewell's St. Louis Browns and the once-futile Phillies can stamp themselves as serious pennant contenders or just spring morning glories in the first inter-sectional series of the major league season opening today in the National's western half and the eastern cities of the American league.

Pre-season experts had spotted Washington and New York as the teams to beat in the American with Chicago a possibility, but the Browns have scrambled the dope sheets in the first three weeks by climbing out in front by trampling Detroit and Chicago and shading Cleveland.

St. Louis and Cincinnati were generally conceded to be the one-two clubs in the National and they had been running that way until the Phils began to bang the Giants and Braves around and moved into second. On paper, the rejuvenated Phils don't belong in that class, but unless their western trip proves differently that doesn't mean a thing.

Now comes the payoff. Tonight the Browns go to bat against the Senators as Clark Griffith opens his steady night-game diet. After Washington, St. Louis goes to Philadelphia, Boston and New York in successive series.

Red Sox Improve

58 HITS, RUNS IN EASTERN LOOP

By The Associated Press

The diamond followers who like to watch the boys wheel 'round the bases had their innings in Wilkes-Barre and Scranton last night as a total of 58 runs were scored on 58 hits in two eastern league games. The wildest contest was staged at Scranton where the Williamsport Grays used a four-run ninth inning to take a 16-15 verdict from the Red Sox after the home club had shoved across 10 tallies in the sixth frame. The Grays combed four Scranton hurlers for 22 bingles while the Red Sox were collecting 13 off two Williamsport moundsmen.

At Wilkes-Barre, Elmira made it two in a row over the Barons by using 15 hits off four pitchers to rack up 17 runs, aided by four Wilkes-Barre miscues. The Pioneers, who used three pitchers to hold their foes to eight base knocks, trailed 10 to 8 going into the fourth frame, but a 5-run uprising put them in front and from then on the Barons were held scoreless.

The opposite in style was used by the Hartford Laurels as they manufactured just three singles to score twice as many runs and defeated Binghamton 6 to 1. Bill Marshall held the triplets to five hits as he bested Johnny Malinowski, Binghamton hurler.

Meanwhile, the Albany Senators dropped their first home contest of the season when Wilbur Reeser southpawed the Utica Braves to a 5 to 3 win.

MAROONS MEET HANOVER TRACK TEAM THURSDAY

Coach Mel Dry's unbeaten Gettysburg high school track team faces one of its toughest assignments of the season Thursday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock when Hanover high will be met on the local athletic field in a dual meet.

While the Maroons nosed out Hanover to capture the Southern Pennsylvania conference title in the meet last Friday evening at Waynesboro, they will probably find the going tougher Thursday. Hanover was deprived of many important points last week through false starts gained by entries from Chambersburg, Carlisle and Waynesboro.

Winners of 11 first places in the conference clash will be meeting. The Nighthawks grabbed six first places to five for Gettysburg at Waynesboro.

McLaughlin Out
Top performer for Hanover will probably be Shue, sprinter. Shue won the 100 and 440-yard dash at Waynesboro to be the only double winner.

The Maroons will be handicapped through the absence of Pat McLaughlin, hurdler, who injured his ankle in a fall last week during the conference meet. William Sperry will be the lone Gettysburg entry in the hurdles.

Following Thursday's meet the Maroons will engage Harrisburg Catholic high here May 18 and two days later will conclude their season by facing Mercersburg academy at Mercersburg.

NO ANTLERLESS DEER SEASON IN PA. DURING WAR

Harrisburg, May 10 (AP)—Declaration of an antlerless deer season in Pennsylvania has been deferred by the State Game Commission in the hope that returning service men will have an opportunity to participate in it.

The commission, in an announcement issued by Ross L. Leffer, commission president, explained the action was taken "even though a season was recommended for a few counties this year" and there are indications a statewide antlerless deer season will be necessary next year.

Killing of does and young bucks without horns was legal for three days last December in Tioga, McKean, Lycoming, Sullivan, Warren, Cameron and Potter counties, a total of 50,000 special $1 permits being issued to sportsmen to hunt in those counties. A similar season declared for Clinton county was abrogated by the commission when a majority of licensed hunters protested against it.

List Season Dates
Game season dates announced officially by the commission are:
Small game, Nov. 1-30; bear, Nov. 27-30; deer, Dec. 1-16; snowshoe hares, Nov. 15-22; and raccoons, Oct. 23-Feb. 1, 1945.

Trapping seasons for fur-bearing animals: minks, skunks and otters, Nov. 1-Feb. 1, 1945; muskrats, Dec. 1-Feb. 1, 1945; beavers, Feb. 15-Mar. 1, 1945; and opossums, unprotected until Sept. 30, 1945. The trapping season for raccoons, Nov. 1-Feb. 1, 1945.

Daily or seasonal bag limits unchanged except for raccoons, for which the daily bag was increased from three to four and the seasonal limit from 15 to 20.

The commission also announced the release of 2,000 South Dakota pheasants in northern tier counties.

Confession Clears Trunk Mystery Case

Crystal City, Texas, May 10 (AP)—A confession that he killed his wife, Mrs. Louise Villegos, by hitting her in the back of the head with his fist and shipped her body in a trunk from Chicago to Los Angeles has been signed here by Soyl Villegos, 26, Deputy Sheriff Garrett Barnes said last night.

A trunk containing a woman's body was opened in Los Angeles last Friday. A way bill showed the trunk was sent from Chicago April 30 by a "John Lopez" to the same name there. No Los Angeles address was included. The way bill was marked "will call."

The body was packed in salt and various articles of clothing thrown over it. Trickling of melting salt caused a Railway Express clerk to notify authorities, who opened the trunk.

Deputy Barnes said Villegos was picked up in Crystal City on the advice of Chicago police.

Cedar symbolized strength and worth in early Biblical times.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, May 10 (AP)—The baseball committee that looked into the high school situation learned that approximately 96 per cent of the high schools support basketball teams, but only 32 per cent participate in baseball... and since the war began baseball interest decreased 14 per cent while basketball showed an increase... On the other side of the picture reports from such widely-spaced spots as New Orleans, La., and Bergen County, N. J., indicate that "education" or "publicity" (choose your own word) will lead the players and fans to show fresh interest in school baseball... Crowds of 15,000 aren't unusual at championship ball games in New Orleans, where interest in professional sport has declined in the past 15 years... Bergen County supports 27 school ball teams, drawing players from 70 towns and small cities... One thing that stands out in both places is that they have coaches who know their jobs and who work hard at coaching.

INCONSISTENT

There was considerable stir among the agriculturists around Rumson, N. J., the other day when the news came out of the birth of twin calves in Mike Jacobs' barn... It was the first such event in the vicinity in 35 years, but Uncle Mike wasn't unduly elated... "They were both bulls," he complained. "I'd have given $50 if they had been heifers."... The assumption is that Mike thinks his publicity department can supply enough bull.

A ROOKIE A DAY

Roland (Frenchy) Gladu, Braves' third baseman: The only player who came straight from England to land a big league job... Frenchy broke in with Del Bissone's Quebec team in the Provincial league in 1939, shifted over to Quebec's Canadian-American league in '41 and hit well over 300 during those three years... Then he took a road trip to England with the Canadian Army and was discharged just in time to report for spring training... In the season opener he speared a Giant liner then smacked a triple for his first hit... The Braves lost but the fans gave Frenchy the Gladu hand.

SPORTPOURRI

During the spring training season, the Cardinals weren't allowed to cross the Eastman-Landis line for an exhibition with Johnny Beazley's Fourth Frying Group team. But Monday it was okay for them to visit Memphis for the same purpose... The Aaron Perry-Bummy Davis fight June 9 will be the first eight-round main bout in Madison Square Garden. Reason is that 18-year-old Aaron isn't old enough for longer bouts in New York... The football Dodgers officially have become the Brooklyn "Tigers," which at least saves one word in headlines.

SERVICE DEPT.

Lieut. Hardy Pearce, athletic officer at the Bainbridge, Md., Naval Training Station, figures a football game with Temple is almost in the bag now that he has met Bob Geasey, former Temple publicist... The Cherry Point, N. C., Marines are high on the boxing ability of S-Sgt. Joe Miragliotta, whose kid brother, Jimmie, won the eastern inter-collegiate lightweight title for Virginia this spring... Joe recently whipped Platoon-Sgt. Eddie Seymour of Parris Island, former southern pro middleweight champ.

BROWNS, PHILS FACING TOUGH TESTS ON ROAD

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Lake Sewell's St. Louis Browns and the once-futile Phillies can stamp themselves as serious pennant contenders or just spring morning glories in the first inter-sectional series of the major league season opening today in the National's western half and the eastern cities of the American league.

Pre-season experts had spotted Washington and New York as the teams to beat in the American with Chicago a possibility, but the Browns have scrambled the dope sheets in the first three weeks by climbing out in front by trampling Detroit and Chicago and shading Cleveland.

St. Louis and Cincinnati were generally conceded to be the one-two clubs in the National and they had been running that way until the Phils began to bang the Giants and Braves around and moved into second. On paper, the rejuvenated Phils don't belong in that class, but unless their western trip proves differently that doesn't mean a thing.

Now comes the payoff. Tonight the Browns go to bat against the Senators as Clark Griffith opens his steady night-game diet. After Washington, St. Louis goes to Philadelphia, Boston and New York in successive series.

PICK PLATTER AS DANGEROUS IN PREAKNESS

By FRED HAYDEN
New York, May 10 (AP)—Warren Wright's proud and pretty Pensive, not content with wearing the richest derby in history, wants to replace that $65,000 chapeau with the rare triple crown of racing.
But thousands of turgids who jammed Jamaica's stands while Pensive was winning Louisville's parade for the posies Saturday are convinced the Preakness and Belmont stakes will not be served up to Trainer Ben Jones' charger on a silver platter, because—
Pensive will have to lick the Platter!

Platter, of course, being a stout chestnut colt, son of Pilate-lets Dine. Owned by George W. Widener, he received the nod of many experts as the best juvenile of 1943.

Held From Derby
Platter was not rushed this spring. Widener deciding to withhold him from the Derby while aiming him straight at Saturday's rich preakness at Pimlico. While Pensive was earning about $40,000 a minute last Saturday with his "this is the derby, Mr. Jones" theme song, Platter had his 1943 coming out party at Jamaica in the six-furling Zev purse.

The strapping Widener colt finished second in that one, a length back of the fleet sprinter, Rodney Stone who carried only 116 pounds to Platter's 126.

Better over a distance, Platter broke in a tangle but covered ground impressively without punishment from Jockey Johnny Longden. Trainer Bert Mulholland was pleased with Platter's effort, for Rodney Stone (now pointing at the Withers at Belmont) was no slouch in 1943 as he piled up winnings close to $25,000.

Lawyer Fined In Sedition Trial
Washington, May 10 (AP)—Justice Jennings Bailey of Federal District court today found James J. Laughlin, Washington lawyer, guilty of contempt of court for his conduct as attorney for two defendants in the mass sedition trial and fined him $150.

Laughlin immediately served notice of appeal, and Justice Bailey said he would stay the fine on condition Laughlin post bond of $300. Bailey said that in his opinion various motions filed by Laughlin were for the purpose of embarrassing Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher, presiding judge of the sedition trial, and to attract publicity for the purpose of disqualifying prospective jurors.

Careless smokers and campers start 30 per cent of forest fires, according to the U. S. Forest Service.

Three-fourths of the planes sent from the United States to the Allies between passage of the Lend-Lease Act and the end of 1943 were combat types.

PICK PLATTER AS DANGEROUS IN PREAKNESS

By FRED HAYDEN
New York, May 10 (AP)—Warren Wright's proud and pretty Pensive, not content with wearing the richest derby in history, wants to replace that $65,000 chapeau with the rare triple crown of racing.
But thousands of turgids who jammed Jamaica's stands while Pensive was winning Louisville's parade for the posies Saturday are convinced the Preakness and Belmont stakes will not be served up to Trainer Ben Jones' charger on a silver platter, because—
Pensive will have to lick the Platter!

Platter, of course, being a stout chestnut colt, son of Pilate-lets Dine. Owned by George W. Widener, he received the nod of many experts as the best juvenile of 1943.

Held From Derby
Platter was not rushed this spring. Widener deciding to withhold him from the Derby while aiming him straight at Saturday's rich preakness at Pimlico. While Pensive was earning about $40,000 a minute last Saturday with his "this is the derby, Mr. Jones" theme song, Platter had his 1943 coming out party at Jamaica in the six-furling Zev purse.

The strapping Widener colt finished second in that one, a length back of the fleet sprinter, Rodney Stone who carried only 116 pounds to Platter's 126.

Better over a distance, Platter broke in a tangle but covered ground impressively without punishment from Jockey Johnny Longden. Trainer Bert Mulholland was pleased with Platter's effort, for Rodney Stone (now pointing at the Withers at Belmont) was no slouch in 1943 as he piled up winnings close to $25,000.

Lawyer Fined In Sedition Trial
Washington, May 10 (AP)—Justice Jennings Bailey of Federal District court today found James J. Laughlin, Washington lawyer, guilty of contempt of court for his conduct as attorney for two defendants in the mass sedition trial and fined him $150.

Laughlin immediately served notice of appeal, and Justice Bailey said he would stay the fine on condition Laughlin post bond of $300. Bailey said that in his opinion various motions filed by Laughlin were for the purpose of embarrassing Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher, presiding judge of the sedition trial, and to attract publicity for the purpose of disqualifying prospective jurors.

Careless smokers and campers start 30 per cent of forest fires, according to the U. S. Forest Service.

Three-fourths of the planes sent from the United States to the Allies between passage of the Lend-Lease Act and the end of 1943 were combat types.

Today's Talk

MOODS

We are all creatures of moods. It seems to me that the most delightful of all human beings is that one who has the genius—for it is genius—to understand these many moods of ours, and to enter into them as though part and parcel of their own.

William James, writing to Oliver Wendell Holmes, said this: "I should like to have you opposite me in any mood, whether the facetiously, the earnestly, the passionately, the personally, the confidentially, or the judiciously, or the argumentatively—so that the oyster shells which enclose my being might slowly turn open on their rigid hinges under the radiation, and the critter within roll out his dried-up gills into the circumfused air of life, till they grew so far as not to know themselves again."

"Who hasn't dreamed of such a person, when started for understanding and appreciation—hungry for a flow of molten moods to give sustenance and substance to one's own forever changing and challenging moods?"

How frequent is that saying: "Please don't talk to him (or her) now. He (or she) isn't in the mood now." Why should this be so? Why shouldn't we all have the tact and taste to face any mood presented by another, and match it in tone and quality—apparently?

How full of fear we are, anyway—and how uselessly! We fit our moods to the day and yet fear to fit our moods to those of the ones we love most. What a rare individual to have as a friend is that one who will shed light gently and whole-some cheer about one "in any mood."

What an inspiration that one is who can meet moods and remain the same in generosity, forbearance and magnanimity—sincerely responsive! Such a one surely represents the quality of nobility in his character. He earns the title of Superior Person.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "War-Time Washington."

Another year will be added to the course and the board of directors will start a campaign to interest county students who want an academic education.

Big Crowd Sees Seniors Play: Before a crowd of over six hundred people, which filled every seat and window sill in Xavier hall, the class of 1919 of Gettysburg high school gave one of the best amateur productions Thursday night ever witnessed by a local audience. For three hours the audience was entertained with "The Colonel's Maid," as the main attraction. The following were in the cast: Robert Geiselman, Glenwood, Shetter, Lorene Roth, Robert Wright, Martha Major, Helen Sefton, Clarence Stoner, James Gilliland and Robert Hartley.

Music was furnished by the high school orchestra led by Rex Gilbert.

Between acts John D. Keith, Esq., gave a short address urging the audience to do their utmost toward shoving the Liberty Loan over the top in Gettysburg.

Aviators Thrill Large Crowd: Hundreds of Adams county people enjoyed the spectacular sight of an airplane going through falling leaves, loop the loops and tail spins when Sgt. Walter Shaffer's plane appeared over Gettysburg at 3:10 o'clock. The big crowd not only enjoyed the demonstration over the center of town, but flocked in great numbers to Camp Croft field to observe the second flight.

Schools were closed, factories shut down to allow both pupils and workmen to enjoy the demonstration and participate in the parade. Gettysburg's band appeared on the streets Thursday afternoon and after giving a concert in front of Liberty Loan headquarters, marched out to Camp Croft field.

GOVERNOR AND OFFICIALS OF STATE IN ERIE

Erie, Pa., May 10 (AP)—Governor Martin, who came here today with most of his cabinet to give northwestern Pennsylvania a first-hand view of the state government, declared the paramount duty now is to win the war and "everything else can wait."

"Nothing matters—whether it be wages or profits, social progress or personal ambitions—if we lose this," he said in a prepared address at a luncheon, which was part of a full day's program.

"To make more weapons, to grow more food, to maintain necessary services in our communities and to speed up production are the great and paramount duties."

Consider Other Trips
"There never was a time," he continued, "when the attention of so many millions of human-kind was centered upon contending fleets and embattled armies. Never before did the fate of all the world depend so directly upon the iron verdicts of war." "It is a time for work and a time for prayer."

The cabinet session here set a precedent and Martin said suggestions for similar meetings in Scranton and Johnstown will be considered after he sees "how this works out." He added its aim was to spur the war effort and create good will for the state government. His party, consisting of 24 persons, included most top-ranking state officials, who planned conferences with local personalities during the day on governmental problems.

Flashes Of Life

BUDGET-BALANCER
St. Louis (AP)—The deacons of the Centenary Methodist church got a real surprise Sunday—a crisp $1,000 bill turned up among the contributions. Neither the pastor nor the deacons have any idea who was so generous.

TAIL ONE
Troy, N. Y. "Pop" neglected to explain that the trout was given him in exchange for directions to a restaurant.

He explained his girl, Anna Guerra, 18, of Chicago, sends him a new picture in every letter she writes—and that is almost every day.

To Seek Approval For Philadelphia Charter

Philadelphia, May 10 (AP)—The full international labor conference will vote on the "Philadelphia charter," which provides that "all national and international policies, in particular those of an economic and financial character" should protect the interests of labor everywhere.

The charter was completed yesterday by the conference drafting committee. If it is approved by a two-thirds majority, it will be referred for ratification to the home governments of the ILO's 40 member nations.

Declaring that "lasting peace can be established only if it is based on social justice," the document says "it is the responsibility of the ILO to examine and consider all international economic and financial policies."

Churchill Took Office 4 Years Ago

London, May 10 (AP)—Fort Britons awaiting invasion D-Day and eventual victory and peace this was a memorable anniversary. Green Explains Lewis' Charge

Philadelphia, May 10 (AP)—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, says John L. Lewis withdrew his application for readmission of the United Mine Workers to the federation and accused the AFL of "servility to the Roosevelt administration" because Lewis failed to get his own way.

After a closed session of the AFL executive council yesterday, Green said: "Some men have a habit in life of forcing their opinions on others and become tremendously disappointed when they fail to have their own way."

"I attribute John's pronouncement as an expression of keen disappointment because I have failed to have 'my' own way."

SEEKS TO AVOID RENO DIVORCE

Elizabeth... N. J., May 10 (AP)—James H. R. Cromwell, seeking to invalidate the Reno divorce obtained by tobacco heiress Doris Duke Cromwell, has told Chancery court that he has been "very friendly" with President Roosevelt, but that the wife's trustee and the Duke interests are "good old-fashioned reactionary Republicans."

Cromwell, former U. S. Minister to Canada under Mr. Roosevelt, testified yesterday he had lost his wife's affections for two reasons—"first, she became infatuated with another man, and in the second place her trustee... always hated me and did everything he could to poison her mind against me."

Cromwell's counsel identified the trustee as Thomas L. Perkins, New York lawyer.

The husband told advisory master in Chancery Douglas Herr that after he "persuaded" his wife to contribute $60,000 to the Roosevelt campaign fund in 1936 her trustee and counsel "poisoned her mind against me."

Cromwell told the court he would "consider it a favor" if identification of the man he said was the object of his wife's infatuation could be avoided, "because to me it is a dead issue."

FIND CLUE TO CURE FOR HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE (Associated Press Science Editor)

New York, May 10—Vitamin A has given scientists a clue to a mysterious substance in fish oil which has power to reduce high blood pressure.

The search was described to the Medical Society of the State of New York by Dr. Irvine H. Page of Indianapolis. It grew out of sensational reports that vitamin A cures high blood pressure.

Dr. Page said a wave of self-administration of this vitamin swept the country, and fabulous cures were reported, but when physicians made careful tests on human beings, nothing happened. Huge doses of the vitamin for as much as a year had no effect on high blood pressures.

The mystery was partly solved by animal experiments: When dogs and other animals, with a laboratory-induced type of high blood pressure, were given vitamin A, their pressures took spectacular drops.

Seek Mysterious Compound
Vitamin A is always part of a concentrate, usually of a fish oil, as this vitamin has not been completely isolated. The doctors suspected that something in the fish concentrate, other than the vitamin, was curing the animals.

This was apparently proved when irradiation was used to destroy all the vitamin A in the concentrate. The vitaminless material still cured the animals.

There is a remote chance, Dr. Page said, that in the careful human tests, the concentrates used did not happen to have enough of the mysterious fish oil substance.

He said investigators were watching with interest work now in progress to find the mysterious compound.

Mother Attempts Suicide With Gas

Philadelphia, May 10 (AP)—Mrs. Evangeline McCormick, 24, left her six-months old daughter with a neighbor yesterday.

Her sister returned to their home shortly afterwards and found the young mother unconscious on the floor of their gas-filled kitchen.

Nearby was a note: "I love my daughter very dearly and please take care of her. All I wanted in the world was my husband and he was taken from me."

Mrs. McCormick's husband is with the Army in the southwest Pacific.

Pittsburgh, May 10 (AP)—The Pennsylvania dairy industry closed its two-day war conference today after members of the state association of milk dealers were told by a Selective Service official that they cannot hope to have any qualified registrant less than 26 years of age deferred.

LUCKY PITCH HITS DIAMOND

Richmond, Va., May 10 (AP)—The "lucky" horseshoe rang as it struck the earth and the horseshoe pitcher noticed a bright object partly uncovered.

It was the "Punch" Jones diamond—described as the largest alluvial diamond ever found in the United States, the largest of any kind found in eastern United States and the second largest of any kind ever found in North America.

William P. "Punch" Jones was pitching horseshoes with his father. That was about 12 years ago. But in spite of a boyish exclamation of "See, I have found a diamond," the stone was not submitted for study until recently. The younger Jones kept the object as a curio but did not offer it for expert inspection until many years later, "because I did not care to face ridicule for my wild suspicion."

Professor Holden, chairman of the geological section of the Virginia Academy of Science, identified the stone as a diamond. He told the academy that the diamond, now loaned by father and son to the National Museum in Washington, is of 34.46 metric carats, is white with a slightly greenish tinge, and has no visible impurities except one black spot.

NO BUYING RUSH WITH POINTS OFF

Washington, May 10 (AP)—Housewives apparently haven't felt any urge—because of meat rationing—to buy out the butcher shops.

The unrationing except on beef steaks and roasts, went into effect a week ago.

Now, after reports from all its regional offices around the country, the War Food Administration says there has been no great buying rush.

One reason given: before unrationing, meat points generally had been low enough to allow most families sufficient meat. This forestalled a desire to splurge when points were removed.

But it seems likely that more meat will be consumed now than before it was point free. Able to get unrationed meat as they want it, housewives can spread red points on the rationed kind.

OPA says the total anticipated supply of meat for civilians in May is 25 per cent greater than a year ago.

Today's Talk
MOODS
We are all creatures of moods. It seems to me that the most delightful of all human beings is that one who has the genius—for it is genius—to understand these many moods of ours, and to enter into them as though part and parcel of their own.

William James, writing to Oliver Wendell Holmes, said this: "I should like to have you opposite me in any mood, whether the facetiously discursive, the metaphysically discursive, the personally confidential, or the jadedly cursive and argumentative—so that the oyster shells which enclose my being might slowly turn open on their rigid hinges under the radiation, and the critter within loll out his dried-up gills into the circumfused ichor of life, till they grew so fat as not to know themselves again."

"Who hasn't dreamed of such a person, when starved for understanding and appreciation—hungry for a flow of molten moods to give sustenance and substance to one's own forever changing and challenging moods?"

How frequent is that saying: "Please don't talk to him (or her) now. He (or she) isn't in the mood now." Why should this be so? Why shouldn't we all have the tact and taste to face any mood presented by another, and match it in tone and quality—happily?

How full of fear we are, anyway—and how useless! We fit our moods to the day, and yet fear to fit our moods to those of the ones we love most. What a rare individual to have as a friend is that one who will shed light, quietly and whole-some cheer about one "in any mood."

What an inspiration that one is who can meet moods and remain the same in generosity, forbearance and magnanimity—sincerely responsive! Such a one surely represents the quality of wholeness in his character. He earns the title of Superior Person.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "War-Time Washington."

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Steam Shovel Arrives: Beginning Monday the Harrisburg road will be closed. The state engineers have completed their survey and a large force of men was on hand to start actual building operations. The steam shovel, which will be used in opening the large stone quarry along the road, reached Granite Station Friday.

Sachs-McCleary: Milton L. Sachs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Sachs, of Mt. Joy township and Miss Isabelle R. McCleary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCleary, of Cumberland township, were married at the Reformed parsonage by Rev. Paul Reid Pontius, Saturday afternoon.

They will reside on a farm near Round Top.

Miss Morrison Home: Miss Edna M. Morrison, A. N. C. of Base Hospital 57, American Expeditionary Forces, who recently returned from France, is now visiting her mother, Mrs. W. S. Morrison, near Bendersville.

Miss Morrison was stationed at a large hospital in Paris and while there received a citation and medal from the French government for work done at a nearby hospital during the epidemic of last fall.

First Class School: Beginning next fall, the Biglerville high school will have a new course of study and will be rated as a first class high school. Another year will be added to the course and the board of directors will start a campaign to interest county students who want an academic education.

Big Crowd Sees Seniors Play: Before a crowd of over six hundred people, which filled every seat and window sill in Xavier hall, the class of 1919 of Gettysburg high school gave one of the best amateur productions Thursday night ever witnessed by a local audience. For three hours the audience was entertained with "The Colonel's Maid," as the main attraction. The following were in the cast: Robert Geiselman, Glenwood Shetter, Lorene Roth, Robert Wright, Martha Major, Helen Sefton, Clarence Stoner, James Gilliland and Robert Hartley.

Music was furnished by the high school orchestra led by Rex Gilbert.

Between acts John D. Keith, Esq., gave a short address urging the audience to do their utmost toward shoving the Liberty Loan over the top in Gettysburg.

The net proceeds were one hundred and thirty dollars.

Marriage License: Clerk of the Courts Sheely is in receipt of a duplicate marriage certificate from Justice of the Peace J. Arthur Spangler, of Fairfield, announcing the marriage of Ralph Musselman and Hazel Richardson, of Hamilton-ban township.

Mother's Day Observance: Mother's Day will be observed on Sunday in many of the Sunday schools and churches of Gettysburg. Many persons will observe the custom of wearing white carnations as an honor to motherhood.

Aviators Thrill Large Crowd: Hundreds of Adams county people enjoyed the spectacular sight of an airplane going through falling leaves, loop the loops and tail spins when Sgt. Walter Shaffer's plane appeared over Gettysburg at 3:10 o'clock. The big crowd not only enjoyed that demonstration over the center of town, but flocked in great numbers to Camp Croft field to observe the second flight.

Schools were closed, factories shut down to allow both pupils and workmen to enjoy the demonstration and participate in the parade. Gettysburg's band appeared on the streets Thursday afternoon and after giving a concert in front of Liberty Loan headquarters, marched out to Camp Croft field.

Sergeant Shaffer, of the Lafayette Flying Corps, delivered a lecture in St. James chapel on Thursday night.

Personal: Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Redding motored to Shippenburg on Sunday with their son, Francis, who is taking a course of study at the normal school.

Miss Mary Galbraith, of West Middle street, has gone to the Shippenburg normal school.

Dr. Edgar Miller, of East Berlin, who saw almost two years' service overseas, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Miller, Baltimore street.

Henry Garvin was recently discharged from the Quartermaster Corps at Camp Meade, where he was stationed for 21 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Plus Breighner, of West Middle street, have received word that their son, Martin Breighner, has arrived in the United States on the "Labrador."

Edwin Ross left Wednesday morning for Westerly, Rhode Island, where he will be employed by J. Ogden Armor and company.

William B. Eckenrode, of South Washington street, has accepted a position with the Middletown Car works.

Sgt. Russell Stauffer has been discharged from the United States Army and returned to his home on Water street.

GOVERNOR AND OFFICIALS OF STATE IN ERIE

Erie, Pa., May 10 (AP)—Governor Martin, who came here today with most of his cabinet to give northwestern Pennsylvania a first-hand view of the state government, declared the paramount duty now is to win the war and "everything else can wait."

"Nothing matters—whether it be wages or profits, social progress or personal ambitions—if we lose this," he said in a prepared address at a luncheon, which was part of a full day's program.

"To make more weapons, to grow more food, to maintain necessary services in our communities and to speed up production are the great and paramount duties."

Consider Other Trips
"There never was a time," he continued, "when the attention of so many millions of human-kind was centered upon contending fleets and embattled armies. Never before did the fate of all the world depend so directly upon the iron verdicts of war. * * * It is a time for work and a time for prayer."

The cabinet session here set a precedent and Martin said suggestions for similar meetings in Scranton and Johnstown will be considered after he sees "how this works out." He added its aim was to spur the war effort and create good will for the state government.

His party, consisting of 24 persons, included most top-ranking state officials, who planned conferences with local personages during the day on governmental problems.

Flashes Of Life

BUDGET-BALANCER
St. Louis (AP)—The deacons of the Centenary Methodist church got a real surprise Sunday—a crisp $1,000 bill turned up among the contributions. Neither the pastor nor the deacons have any idea who was so generous.

TALL ONE
Troy, N. Y. (AP)—Trout seekers lined Hudson river docks here after "Pop," fisherman of the first water, truthfully told the curious he got his five-pound lake trout "down at the foot of State street."

EXPENSIVE SIGHT-SEEING
Luke Field, Ariz. (AP)—Second Lt. John B. Kennedy had a close-up aerial view of Phoenix, Ariz., but it's costing him $1,200. A general court martial convicted him of low flying and ordered forfeiture of $100 a month from his pay for one year.

FAVORITE PIN-UP
Camp Ellis, Ill. (AP)—Pvt. Walter Gruber's buddies express astonishment when they first look at his pin-up girl collection. His collection now numbers 156—he lost 100 when he was transferred from his last station. But Gruber's pictures are all of the same girl.

He explained his girl, Anna Guerra, 18, of Chicago, sends him a new picture in every letter she writes—and that is almost every day.

To Seek Approval For Philadelphia Charter

Philadelphia, May 10 (AP)—The full international labor conference will vote on the "Philadelphia charter," which provides that "all national and international policies, in particular those of an economic and financial character" should protect the interests of labor everywhere.

The charter was completed yesterday by the conference drafting committee. If it is approved by a two-thirds majority, it will be referred for ratification to the home governments of the ILO's 40 member nations.

Declaring that "lasting peace can be established only if it is based on social justice," the document says "it is the responsibility of the ILO to examine and consider all international economic and financial policies."

Churchill Took Office 4 Years Ago

London, May 10 (AP)—For Britons awaiting invasion D-Day and eventual victory and peace this was a memorable anniversary.

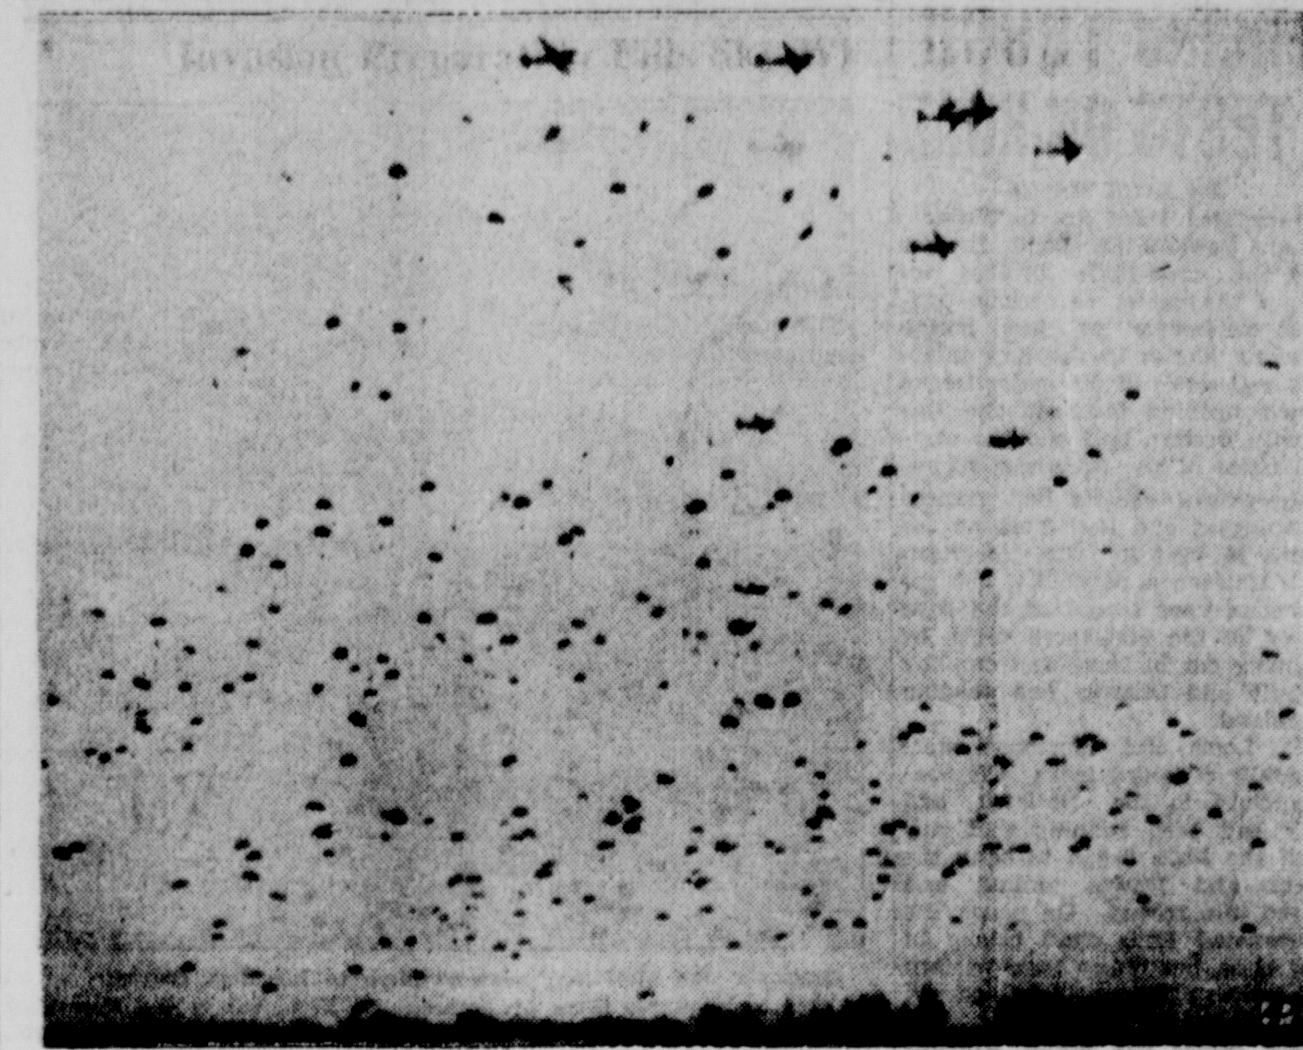

It was on May 10 four years ago that Winston Churchill replaced the late Neville Chamberlain as prime minister and began leading them through the darker days that still were to come and finally onto the road to victory.

"NAZI MASSACRE"
Bern, Switzerland, May 10 (AP)—The Gazette de Lausanne reported today the recent "Nazi massacre" of 87 Frenchmen at a village near Lille as the result of multiple sabotage in northern France.

The killings occurred a month ago in reprisal for the derailment of a troop train, killing 20 German soldiers, the dispatch said.

The nose on the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor is 4 feet, 6 inches long.

Invasion Preparation Fills Sky With Paratroopers

The sky over this unidentified base somewhere in England is filled with paratroopers and parachutes carrying their supplies during pre-invasion maneuvers. More than 1,500 men took part in the test, said by the Army to be probably the largest mass exhibition jump ever conducted by its forces. The planes (top) which carried the paratroopers are C-47s. (AP Wirephoto from U. S. Signal Corps.)

Green Explains Lewis' Charge

Philadelphia, May 10 (AP)—William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, says John L. Lewis withdrew his application for readmission of the United Mine Workers to the federation and accused the AFL of "servility to the Roosevelt administration" because Lewis failed to get his own way.

After a closed session of the AFL executive council yesterday, Green said:

"Some men have a habit in life of forcing their opinions on others and become tremendously disappointed when they fail to have their own way."

"I attribute John's pronouncement as an expression of keen disappointment because 'I have failed to have my own way.'"

SEEKS TO AVOID RENO DIVORCE

Elizabeth, N. J., May 10 (AP)—James H. R. Cromwell, seeking to invalidate the Reno divorce obtained by tobacco heiress Doris Duke Cromwell, has told Chancery court that he has been "very friendly" with President Roosevelt but that the wife's trustee and the Duke interests are "good old-fashioned reactionary Republicans."

Cromwell, former U. S. Minister to Canada under Mr. Roosevelt, testified yesterday he had lost his wife's affections for two reasons—"first, she became infatuated with another man, and in the second place her trustee . . . always hated me and did everything he could to poison her mind against me."

Cromwell's counsel identified the trustee as Thomas L. Perkins, New York lawyer.

The husband told advisory master in Chancery Douglas Herr that after he "persuaded" his wife to contribute $50,000 to the Roosevelt campaign fund in 1936 her trustee and counsel "poisoned her mind against me."

Cromwell told the court he would "consider it a favor" if identification of the man he said was the object of his wife's infatuation could be avoided, "because to me it is a dead issue."

FIND CLUE TO CURE FOR HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE (Associated Press Science Editor)
New York, May 10—Vitamin A has given scientists a clue to a mysterious substance in fish oil which has power to reduce high blood pressure.

The search was described to the Medical Society of the State of New York by Dr. Irvine H. Page of Indianapolis. It grew out of sensational reports that vitamin A cures high blood pressure.

Dr. Page said a wave of self-administration of this vitamin swept the country, and fabulous cures were reported, but when physicians made careful tests on human beings, nothing happened. Huge doses of the vitamin for as much as a year had no effect on high blood pressures.

The mystery was partly solved by animal experiments: When dogs and other animals, with a laboratory-induced type of high blood pressure, were given vitamin A, their pressures took spectacular drops.

LUCKY PITCH HITS DIAMOND

Richmond, Va., May 10 (AP)—The "lucky" horseshoe rang as it struck the earth and the horseshoe pitcher noticed a bright object partly uncovered.

It was the "Punch" Jones diamond—described as the largest alluvial diamond ever found in the United States, the largest of any kind found in eastern United States and the second largest of any kind ever found in North America.

William P. "Punch" Jones was pitching horseshoes with his father.

That was about 12 years ago. But in spite of a boyish exclamation of "See, I have found a diamond," the stone was not submitted for study until recently. The younger Jones kept the object as a curio but did not offer it for expert inspection until many years later "because I did not care to face ridicule for my wild suspicion."

Professor Holden, chairman of the geological section of the Virginia Academy of Science, identified the stone as a diamond. He told the academy that the diamond, now loaned by father and son to the National Museum in Washington, is of 34.46 metric carats, is white with a slightly greenish tinge, and has no visible inclusions except one black spot.

WPB To Stimulate Radio Production

Cleveland, May 10 (AP)—The war production board today announced that it will offer, effective May 16, expanded service to manufacturers of radio and radar equipment in 491 plants in western Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky.

Howard J. Sharpley, regional manager of the WPB radio and radar section, said specialists assigned by WPB will work with the armed services and industry in expediting yesterday.

More than 300 milk dealers from all parts of the state attended a dinner last night at which Elmer J. Mather, vice president of the National Dairy Products Corp., spoke on postwar possibilities of the industry.

REPLACING M P'S

U. S. INJUNCTION

a collective bargaining election which was won by the CIO union whose controversy with the company led to government control of the plant on April 26. The results showed the CIO union represented a majority of the employees, which was a fundamental issue in the dispute over extension of a union-company contract.

The Commerce secretary's announcement of the government's termination of possession also came on the eve of a scheduled federal court decision on the legality of the seizure by federal officials on order of President Roosevelt.

Says Public Helped

The relinquishing of federal control followed President Roosevelt's earlier comment that the election outcome would "end the case." Jones said the purpose of seizing the plant had been accomplished and the election had been completed.

Avery, however, asserted the President had made a "misstatement," and added that Ward officials would bargain with any union chosen by the employees but would oppose any contract providing for any form of "closed shop." He also declared that "the government has given no satisfactory reason for its action" for the "abrupt return of the Montgomery Ward property to its rightful owners."

Announcing his plans to return to his office from which he had been barred since his forcible ejection April 27, Avery attributed the government's returning the plant to "the indignation of the public which has risen like a balloon and has made it too hot for the administration."

Commenting on his return, the 69 year old chairman of the country's second largest mail order firm said: "I think it would be better if Jesse (Jones), who is a very strong man, would be here to carry me back from where he took me."

Majestic To Aid WAC Recruiting

Gettysburg's Majestic theater will join with 16,000 other theaters throughout the nation in a drive to secure members for the Women's Army Corps during the week starting Thursday, it was announced today.

Col. K. B. Lemmon, of the state recruiting office, has asked the co-operation of the local theater in the drive which celebrates the second year since the organization of the Women's Army Corps.

Members of the various women's organizations of the town currently manning the war bond booth at the theater will double as "recruiting officers" during the coming week with supplies of literature about the WAC and with forms for prospective WAC candidates to fill out in order to be given the preliminary tests for entrance into the armed forces.

A short picture in which Lionel Barrymore outlines reasons for joining the WAC will be shown during the week starting Thursday. The quota set for the local section is three candidates to be secured during the drive.

Capt. Hanson Speaks

Capt. Robert Hanson who is on leave with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson, told of the appreciation of the service men for the letters and boxes which they receive. He stressed the value of various service organizations such as the USO, church groups and the like groups which are providing recreation for the men, particularly to those in the ranks. He said that this recreation played an important part in keeping the man, happy and contented. He told of the routine of the average soldier and of the confidence he felt in attaining ultimate success.

A profusion of spring flowers was used in decorating the room for the meeting. A social hour was held after the meeting with the following members serving as hostesses: Mrs. J. I. Burgoon, Mrs. Mark K. Eckert, Mrs. Ralph R. Gresh, Miss Bessie Hoke, Mrs. Harvey D. Hoover, Mrs. Paul A. Kinsey, Mrs. John A. Mumper, Mrs. J. Ellis Musselman, Mrs. Albert Partner, Mrs. A. Z. ## NEED MORE FATS

Washington, May 10 (AP)—Removal of point values from all meats except beef steaks and roasts, housewives who save kitchen fats still will be paid in both red points and cash, the Office of Price Administration said Tuesday, emphasizing that the need for fats and oils continues.

The American Expeditionary Force in World War I consumed 200,000,000 cans of milk and 190,000,000 cans of tomatoes.

LADY IN A WHIRL

By Esther Valck Georgins

Chapter 11

Quickly Cora removed her dress and shoes and handed them through the door. After she shut it she heard a key turn on the outside.

Almost at once she realized that she had made a mistake. How could she escape without shoes? Although Cora was exceedingly modest and would have been more than slightly agitated if forced to appear in public in her underwear, still in a case like this she could have endured it. And anyway there was no public to consider in these hills. But shoes. Why had she ever given up her shoes? She would not be able to walk very far on the rough mountain roads in her stocking feet.

"Fool! Fool!" she muttered bitterly. "Oh, dear. Well, I have to get out of here somehow. I'll worry about the walking afterwards."

She went to the window and looked out. The prospect was anything but encouraging. The ground was far below and stony. No use to think of jumping. She went to the bed with a vague idea of tying the bed clothes together and lowering herself down that way, but the only covering was a worn quilt.

Dismally she sat down on the bed. The afternoon wore on and no way of escape presented itself. She became more and more uneasy, but there was nothing she could do.

"I'll just have to wait and take advantage of whatever turns up," she decided.

As if in answer to her thoughts, the key turned and the door opened slowly. Cora looked, then blinked and looked again. In the doorway stood a slender, golden-haired child, perfectly nude, except for a stringy red ribbon tied around her waist. She had a bunch of carrots in her hand.

"My Heaven!" exclaimed Cora. The child closed the door. "Pop said I could come and see you," she said. She proffered the carrots. "He sent you these."

Speechless, Cora accepted the carrots.

"They're for your supper," the child explained.

"Where," babbled Cora, "where's the rest of the stew?"

The little girl just stared. "What's your name, child?" Cora asked after a minute.

"Rutabaga," was the answer.

Rutabaga came closer and regarded Cora with round, blue eyes, then crossed the room and sat down on the chair. Cora rested her elbow on her plump knee and dropped her head dejectedly onto her hand.

"I certainly am in a fix," she said. Then a crafty light flickered in her eyes. After all the door was unlocked, and only this small child between her and liberty. She peered at Rutabaga near-sightedly, then arose and made a pretense of stretching.

"I think I'll take a little walk around," she said, edging towards the door.

"You won't get pop," Rutabaga assured her. "Pop's sitting at the foot of the stairs in a tub of soda and water."

Cora sat down again.

"It's the poison ivy," Rutabaga explained. "He's covered with it. Golly, but he itches!"

"Serves him right!" said Cora.

After a long silence Rutabaga spoke. "Aren't you going to eat your carrots?" she asked.

"Oh!" exclaimed Cora. "Carrots! What I wouldn't give for a steak!"

"Steak?" repeated Rutabaga. That is meat, isn't it?"

"Certainly it's meat," Cora snapped.

"I tasted meat once," Rutabaga told her wistfully.

"Once?" Cora squinted at her.

"Yes, ma'am. Pop doesn't know though. He'd raise an awful row if he did. A lady gave it to me."

"Did you like it?"

"Yes, ma'am. I certainly did. I wish I had some more. I'd give anything for some more."

Cora had a sudden inspiration. "Would you do anything for some steak?" she asked intently.

"Yes, ma'am. I guess I would."

"Well, if you'll help me get away from here I'll give you all the meat you can eat. Will you do it?"

"Pop might thrash me. He's always threatening."

"You help me out of here and I'll see that he doesn't thrash you," Cora promised.

"But he wouldn't let me eat meat even if you gave it to me."

"Well, you'll have to come along home with me. He won't know what you're eating. Do you know where I live?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Good. Then we won't get lost. Now can you think of any way I can get out?"

"I'll put a ladder to the window," said Rutabaga, "after dark."

"And my shoes," Cora reminded her. "I can't walk in my stocking feet."

"Yes, ma'am. I'll try," Rutabaga departed.

As soon as it was dark Cora wrapped herself in the frayed quilt and pulled the chair to the window. She wanted to be ready the instant the ladder appeared. After a long wait it did. Cora opened the window quickly.

"Be quiet," the child whispered. "Pop's awake. He can't sleep; he's itching."

Rutabaga descended the ladder and held it steady while Cora climbed down.

"Where are my shoes?" she hissed when she reached the bottom rung. "I couldn't get them. Pop's got them locked up."

Originator Of Poppy Day Dies

Athens, Ga., May 10 (AP)—Miss Moira Michael, who originated "Poppy Day" in 1918 as a memorial to the war dead, died in a hospital early today after an illness of several months.

Known as the "Poppy Lady," she also originated the annual memorial to soldiers and sailors who died at sea in the first World War.

President Roosevelt told Miss Michael in 1938 "you started a wonderful work."

She was a member of the University of Georgia faculty for more than 25 years.

She carried the "Poppy Day" idea to the American Legion, which sponsored it in August, 1920. The British Legion adopted it in 1921. Since then poppy sales have brought millions of dollars, chiefly for the aid of disabled war veterans.

Kissing the hands of great men was an ancient Greek custom.

"STOPPED TAKING DAILY LAXATIVES"

"After 15 years' dosing now eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN"

Constipated? Given up hope of finding lasting, gentle relief? Then read this uncollected letter:

"I am a rural letter carrier. For more than 15 years I used a laxative every night. About a year and a half ago a good friend suggested that I try KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. I did so—with the result that I have not taken a pill since. I eat ALL-BRAN generously every day. I find it a great help." John H. Martin, Westminister, Maryland.

How can such helpful results come about? Scientists say one common cause of constipation is lack of sufficient "cellulose" elements in the diet—and KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of these important elements. They help the friendly flora to fluff up and prepare the colonic contents for easy, natural elimination. KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative, but a natural, gentle, "regulating" FOOD.

If your constipation is this kind, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly, as a cereal or in several muffins. Drink plenty of water. See if you don't get help, too. Insist on the genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek, Mich.

New York, May 10 (AP)—Frank Sinatra, 33, in a New York hospital with a streptococcal throat, is missing his first broadcast tonight since his career began skyrocketing.

Joan Edwards, who appears with Sinatra in the Saturday night Hit Parade, will substitute for him, at 9 o'clock on CBS. The guest star will be Robert Benchley.

Sinatra, whose condition after taking sick Monday was described as good, had made plans to return to Hollywood for more movie making after his Saturday broadcast. Whether these arrangements will be changed depends upon his condition.

Shaping summer schedules, being added to constantly, call for a show built around Gracie Fields, singing comedienne, to replace Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy when they go on their annual 13-week leave from NBC.

ABOLITION OF FSA DEMANDED

Washington, May 10 (AP)—Abolition of the Farm Security Administration was recommended by a Special House Committee today in a report which accused the agency of controlling its clients "to the extent of telling the borrower how to raise his children" and "how to plan his home life."

The FSA, the committee said, "has not been wisely administered and has been used as an experiment station of un-American ideas and economic and social theories of little or questionable value."

The committee, headed by Rep. Cooley (D-NC), emphasized that its criticism applied to the administration of Rexford Guy Tugwell and C. B. Baldwin. It commended the recently appointed administrator, Frank Hancock, for having made "substantial and worthwhile changes in both policies and personnel."

Nevertheless it called for abolition of the FSA and regional Agricultural Credit Corporations, discontinuance of the emergency crop and feed loan offices, liquidation of FSA's resettlement and rural rehabilitation project, and transfer of the federal aid to low-income farms program of Farmer's Home Corporation.

Hollywood, May 10 (AP)—Counsel for screen actress Joan Fontaine said he was filing in Los Angeles superior court today her divorce action against Brian Aherne of the films.

Her attorney, Martin Gang, said Miss Fontaine charges cruelty in her complaint. She is currently touring Canada with a U. S. O. unit, he reported.

Miss Fontaine, who is 25, and Aherne, 42, were married Aug. 20, 1939, at Del Monte, Calif.

CAPITALITES BELIEVE FOR WILL SEEK 4TH

Washington, May 10 (AP)—President Roosevelt's renewed refusal to talk about a fourth term convinced most capital Republicans and some Democrats today that he now plans to accept another presidential nomination.

With only a little more than two months remaining before the party's delegates convene in Chicago, Mr. Roosevelt declined at a news conference yesterday to comment on Democratic National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan's statement that he entertained a "firm conviction" the President again would be a candidate and would be reelected. Hannegan made this statement in a speech at New York Monday night.

Look, the President told reporters who packed his press-radio conference, he was only just back from a month's vacation in South Carolina. He hadn't read Hannegan's speech and he wouldn't talk about it if he had. He wasn't, he said, going to talk any more than he did before.

The President didn't explain whether he meant he was not any more disposed to discuss the matter than before he took his vacation or whether he referred to the period before the 1940 convention when he refused to disclose his attitude toward a third term.

Senator Bushfield (R-SD) commented tartly "the President may be fooling himself as to what he's going to do, but he isn't fooling anyone else."

Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) felt that, while the President was not a candidate, he would accept a nomination. In somewhat the same vein, Senator Tunnel (D-DeI) declared he believed it to the best interests of the country to draft the President.

MARTIN SAYS GOP WILL CARRY PA.

Harrisburg, May 10 (AP)—Pennsylvania will be in the Republican column next November, Governor Martin says, regardless of whether President Roosevelt seeks a fourth term in the general election.

"We'll go down to Philadelphia and Allegheny county (Pittsburgh) with a very substantial majority," Martin told reporters yesterday. "We'll carry 45 counties outside those two big cities. We're going to carry Philadelphia."

Allegheny, he added, is "in the best shape from a Republican standpoint than it has been for a long while."

Martin said his predictions were based on the belief "the enormous cost of government and the interference of the rights of individuals have become so apparent that the great middle class want a change and they feel they can make that change without interfering with the war effort and probably strengthening the war effort."

President Roosevelt carried Pennsylvania in the last two presidential elections by substantial margins.

Says Steelworkers Getting Highest Pay

Pittsburgh, May 10 (AP)—Steelworkers' wages are today "the highest they have ever received on an hourly, daily, weekly or annual basis," declares John A. Stephens, vice president in charge of industrial relations of the U. S. Steel Corp., of Delaware.

In a radio broadcast last night, Stephens said that management believes it "would be prejudicial to the interests of all the people" if the CIO-United Steelworkers demands for a 17-cent hourly increase are met.

Stephens is chairman of the Steel Case Research committee created to assist producers in current proceedings before the war labor board.

New York, May 10 (AP)—Frank Sinatra, ill in a New York hospital with a streptococcal throat, is missing his first broadcast tonight since his career began skyrocketing.

Joan Edwards, who appears with Sinatra in the Saturday night Hit Parade, will substitute for him, at 9 o'clock on CBS. The guest star will be Robert Benchley.

Sinatra, whose condition after taking sick Monday was described as good, had made plans to return to Hollywood for more movie making after his Saturday broadcast. Whether these arrangements will be changed depends upon his condition.

Shaping summer schedules, being added to constantly, call for a show built around Gracie Fields, singing comedienne, to replace Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy when they go on their annual 13-week leave from NBC.

ABOLITION OF FSA DEMANDED

Washington, May 10 (AP)—Abolition of the Farm Security Administration was recommended by a Special House Committee today in a report which accused the agency of controlling its clients "to the extent of telling the borrower how to raise his children" and "how to plan his home life."

The FSA, the committee said, "has not been wisely administered and has been used as an experiment station of un-American ideas and economic and social theories of little or questionable value."

The committee, headed by Rep. Coolidge (D-N.C.), emphasized that its criticism applied to the administration of Rexford Guy Tugwell and C. B. Baldwin. It commended the recently appointed administrator, Frank Hancock, for having made "substantial and worthwhile changes in both policies and personnel."

Nevertheless it called for abolition of the FSA and regional Agricultural Credit Corporations, discontinuance of the emergency crop and feed loan offices, liquidation of FSA's resettlement and rural rehabilitation project, and transfer of the federal aid to low-income farms program of Farmer's Home Corporation.

Joan Fontaine To Divorce Aherne

Hollywood, May 10 (AP)—Counsel for screen actress Joan Fontaine said he was filing in Los Angeles superior court today her divorce action against Brian Aherne of the films.

Their separation was announced last March 28 by Miss Fontaine, who once termed Aherne "the finest husband in the world."

Her attorney, Martin Gang, said Miss Fontaine charges cruelty in her complaint. She is currently touring Canada with a U. S. O. unit, he reported.

Miss Fontaine, who is 25, and Aherne, 42, were married Aug. 20, 1939, at Del Monte, Calif.

CAPITALITES BELIEVE FDR WILL SEEK 4TH

Washington, May 10 (AP)—President Roosevelt's renewed refusal to talk about a fourth term convinced most capital Republicans and some Democrats today that he now plans to accept another presidential nomination.

With only a little more than two months remaining before the party's delegates convene in Chicago, Mr. Roosevelt declined at a news conference yesterday to comment on Democratic National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan's statement that he entertained a "firm conviction" the President again would be a candidate and would be reelected. Hannegan made this statement in a speech at New York Monday night.

Look, the President told reporters who packed his press-radio conference, he was only just back from a month's vacation in South Carolina. He hadn't read Hannegan's speech and he wouldn't talk about it if he had. He wasn't, he said, going to talk any more than he did before.

The President didn't explain whether he meant he was not any more disposed to discuss the matter than before he took his vacation or whether he referred to the period before the 1940 convention when he refused to disclose his attitude toward a third term.

Senator Bushfield (R-SD) commented tartly "the President may be fooling himself as to what he's going to do, but he isn't fooling anyone else."

Senator Thomas (D-Okla.) felt that, while the President was not a candidate, he would accept a nomination. In somewhat the same vein, Senator Tunnel (D-De.) declared he believed it to the best interests of the country to draft the President.

Arabian Pipeline May Be Ace-In-Hole

New York, May 10 (AP)—The Saudi-Arabian petroleum pipeline proposal appeared today, on the basis of the latest explanation by Petroleum Administrator Ickes, to represent primarily the U. S. Government's ace-in-the-hole in an international oil supply poker game.

Commenting that the plan for a government-owned project is subject "to modification and improvement," Ickes told the Economic club that shortly after the original announcement Britain sent representatives here for two weeks of discussions on world oil.

Ickes said of the project: "It is only a single, and not too important item in what we may hope eventually will be a comprehensive national oil policy, embracing both domestic and foreign operations x x x."

He said he hoped for an international agreement, "between the
